

Employee Spotlight – Jaime Lawson

How long have you been working at RT New Day?

I have been with New Day for 1 year.

As an Account Manager, what are your primary responsibilities?

My primary responsibilities include servicing RT New Day's retail broker partners, requesting and receiving submissions for new and renewal business, obtaining quotes from carriers, proposal preparation, binding of business, and processing binders, endorsements and policies.

What do you see as some of the advantages for brokers who partner with RT New Day?

RT New Day's expert knowledge of the environmental construction-related professional liability products as well as our top notch service are the biggest advantages of working with RT New Day.

What do you find to be the most enjoyable parts of your job?

I love that I am always learning something new here at RT New Day, whether it be new processes or new products.

How do you like to spend your spare time when you are not at New Day?

In my spare time I like to spend time with my son and I am involved in a billiards league, for which I am currently on teams that are qualified for the Local Championship in Atlantic City, with hopes to advance to the National Championship in Las Vegas.
