Jenna Koch Named Account Administrator at RT Environmental & Construction Professional

Hamilton, New Jersey (October 21, 2021) – Jenna Koch has joined the Environmental and Construction Professional (ECP) Practice of RT Specialty as an account administrator. She is responsible for helping the team’s senior executives manage the account and policy servicing activities performed on behalf of the company’s national network of agents and brokers.

“Jenna’s drive and work ethic made her an ideal fit for our organization,” says Tim Farrell, senior vice president at RT ECP. “Our goal is to nurture young talent, who possess the determination to learn the industry and provide our clients with the best-possible services available in today’s marketplace. We believe Jenna’s background, education and work experience will be invaluable for helping her to thrive in this environment.”

Prior to RT ECP, Koch supported the sales and customer services efforts of several large retailers based throughout the Oxford Valley, Pa. area.

Koch holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration Degree from Rider, University in Lawrenceville, NJ. A resident of Levittown, Pa, Koch can be reached at 609-469-2655 or jenna.koch@rtspecialty.com.
