Rachael Neary Named Account Administrator at RT Environmental & Construction Professional

Hamilton, New Jersey (November 4, 2021) – Rachael Neary has been named an account administrator in the Environmental and Construction Professional (RT ECP) Practice of RT Specialty. She will work with senior management to further the account management and policy servicing activities supplied to the company’s national network of agents and, brokers.

“Rachael joins us as a dedicated professional motivated to learn the complex environmental and construction-related insurance marketplace,” says Maydelis Torres, vice president in RT Specialty’s Environmental and Construction Professional Practice. “Her prior experience within the property and casualty industry will provide a valuable building block for helping our clients daily and ascending through the ranks of this organization. Our goal is to grow and nurture the very best talent in an environment driven to be recognized as the industry’s premier and most knowledgeable resource.”

Before joining RT ECP, Neary served as an underwriter’s assistant at Bass Underwriters in Jersey City, New Jersey. She holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from Stockton University in addition to the AINS designation from The Institutes.

A resident of Mount Holly, New Jersey, Neary can be reached at 609-469-2654 or rachael.neary@rtspecialty.com.
