Manish is the Co-President of The OakBridge Team within RT ProExec leading a team of 65 professionals specializing in the placement of Executive, Cyber, Professional and Transactional Liability insurance products. Manish joined RT Specialty in 2011. Prior to RT Specialty, Manish spent 8 years in various insurance brokerage positions around the country including Carpenter Moore Insurance Services, The NASDAQ Stock Market and McGriff Seibels & Williams.

In each of his roles, Manish has concentrated on the placement of director's and officer's liability insurance for publicly traded, privately held and not-for-profit organizations across a diverse range of industries. He has guided several companies through the D&O insurance procurement process during their initial public offering. Additionally, he has strong experience in several ancillary products including employment practices liability, fiduciary liability, cyber liability, crime and transactional risk insurance.

Manish's strength is his long-term relationships with key underwriters in the management and professional liability industry, which he continually leverages to provide his clients with superior results. Prior to entering the insurance industry, he completed the financial leadership program with AT&T and a term of service as an AmeriCorps member with the San Francisco Conservation Corps. Manish is a graduate of Boston University.

In his personal time, Manish enjoys being outdoors riding his bike, hiking and skiing; loves all types of music and cooking. He's recently committed to becoming a better golfer and welcomes opportunities to play with clients and carriers.
