Katherine is an Account Executive on The OakBridge Team within RT ProExec, specializing in private and non-profit Management Liability insurance. Katherine joined RT Specialty in 2023, bringing a strong academic foundation and practical experience. Prior to joining, Katherine earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Endicott College in Beverly, MA, where she completed three distinct internships focusing on management, sales, and customer service.

Throughout her career, Katherine has embraced a client-focused approach, applying her skills in time management, organization, and attention to detail to deliver exceptional service to her accounts. Known for her personable style, she excels at building strong, lasting relationships.

Katherine is a member of Young Risk Professionals of Hartford, where she continues to expand her industry connections and deepen her knowledge.

She is enthusiastic about her future at RT Specialty and welcomes every opportunity to learn, grow, and contribute to the team's success.

Outside of work, Katherine enjoys spending time outdoors, whether hiking with her dog or exploring new places. She has a passion for photography and loves capturing everyday moments. Before joining the team, she spent the summer in Big Sky, Montana, working at a resort hotel, where she embraced the beauty of nature and connected with people from around the world. At home, Katherine often experiments with new recipes, dives into creative craft projects and spends time with friends and family.
