Liam McDermott serves as broker within The OakBridge Team – RT ProExec. His primary focus is Professional Liability and Cyber placements, partnering with retail agents to navigate complex risks and evolving exposures.

Liam has been in the Insurance Industry for five years. Prior To RT Specialty, Liam began his career at Apogee Insurance Group, a wholesale broker, where he focused on securing placements, cultivating strong client relationships, driving new business growth, negotiating favorable terms, and ensuring long-term client retention.

During his time at USI as a Retail Producer, Liam specialized in Lawyers Professional Liability, working with carriers and attorneys across the Mid-Atlantic region to deliver tailored coverage solutions and trusted risk management strategies. He excelled in building lasting relationships, driving client retention, and providing consultative guidance. Liam's expertise includes negotiating with attorneys from diverse practice areas to secure the most comprehensive programs available.

Liam's strengths include his ability to build and maintain strong relationships with underwriters ensuring the delivery of competitive solutions in the Professional Liability and Cyber Insurance space.

Outside of work, Liam is an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan, enjoys traveling, and spends time on the golf course—always ready to share a round with clients and carriers.
