Marissa Streckfus, Vice President and Claims Manager for RT ProExec, began her career as a management liability claims specialist at Chubb. Marissa joined RT ProExec in 2017. For close to 10 years prior, Marissa adjusted claims for Directors & Officers, Employment Practices, Fiduciary, Cyber and other Professional Errors and Omissions Liability policies. While employed with Chubb, Marissa attended the University of Connecticut School of Law and graduated in 2015. Marissa is a member of the Connecticut Bar Association.

Marissa brings strong skills in policy language review, management liability coverage issues, and claim management. Our practice prides itself on providing the value-added benefit of guiding our clients and trading partners with deep knowledge of financial lines claim issues and strong relationships with our carriers to attain positive coverage outcomes.

In her personal time, Marissa enjoys spending time with her family, cooking, getting outside and exercising. She is always looking for new and fun ways to stay active to keep up with her twins! She is also a soccer superfan. Go Liverpool!
