Peter is a broker on The OakBridge Team within RT ProExec. Specializing in the placement of Executive, Cyber and Professional insurance products. Peter joined RT Specialty in 2022. Prior to RT Specialty, Peter spent 7 years in various insurance underwriting positions including Emergin Risk and Beazley.

In his previous roles, Peter has concentrated on underwriting cyber and professional insurance products. Now as a broker he concentrates on the placement of director's and officer's liability insurance for privately held and not-for-profit organizations as well as cyber / E&O across a varying range of industries. Additionally, he has strong experience in several ancillary products including employment practices liability, fiduciary liability, crime and kidnap and ransom.

Peter's strength is not only his in-depth knowledge of various insurance products but also his relationships with underwriters in the industry, which he continually leverages to provide his clients with remarkable results.

In his personal time, Peter enjoys being outdoors, fishing, boating, golfing and being with his family. He loves watching sports, especially his favorite teams, the Dallas Cowboys and New York Rangers.
