Will is a Broker within the Financial Institutions division of The OakBridge Team. He joined RT Specialty from Chubb, where he served as a Private Company D&O underwriter in the New York Region. Prior to entering the insurance industry, Will spent six years as an intelligence analyst in the U.S. Army, supporting CENTCOM missions at the NSA / CSS.

Will now focuses on Professional and Management Liability coverages within the Financial Institutions (FI) sector. In addition to banks, credit unions, and insurance companies, the FI team provides solutions for every stage of the Private Investment cycle. The FI team developed market-leading products at both the GP / fund and PortCo levels: Private Capital Prime and Portfolio Prime. These offerings deliver broad coverage, competitive terms, and certain intangibles not readily available from competing off-the-shelf products.

Will's strengths include his attention to detail, strong work ethic, and responsiveness. Risk analysis is the throughline of his professional career. He consistently maintains a high degree of professionalism and is determined to deliver high-quality solutions at every opportunity.

Outside of work, Will enjoys outdoor activities such as hiking, canoe camping, golfing, and playing tennis with his wife and friends. He has lifelong goals of completing the Northern Forest Canoe Trail and hiking all 46 High Peaks in the Adirondacks.
